Eagan, MN – June 10, 2010–

What better way to enjoy the timeless works of Shakespeare than at the Theater in the Woods amphitheater at Caponi Art Park, which looks and feels as though it has stood the test of time untouched. Come for a summer evening of comedy, tragedy and romance as locally established theater companies pay homage to William Shakespeare's work in a truly fitting setting and celebrate 10 years of outdoor performances in the majestic Theater in the Woods at Caponi Art Park's Shakespeare Festival. On Friday and Saturday, June 25th and 26th, performances by the Cromulent Shakespeare Company and Minnesota Shakespeare Company will bring the works “Troilus and Cressida” and “Hamlet” to life. Visit www.caponiartpark.org for play synopsis’.
