

A World Class Outdoor Art Experience

Happy New Year!

Thank you to all who contributed to our fall giving campaign and helped us earn the $6,000 matching grant from the park's board! Your support is deeply appreciated and will help us continue to make art accessible to the community.

We are excited about the variety of art experiences in the works for the coming year. You can be sure Covid-19 safety concerns are an important part of our plans.

NEW! Adventures in Cardboard, Summer 2021

Adventures in Cardboard will return to the park for six weeks this summer. Registration begins Saturday, January 16 and fills quickly! Step into a world of swords and sorcery, catapults and castles, mythical heroes and legendary beasts! If you are looking for a creative summer camp experience for your kids make sure to sign them up for this one! Check out their website for the dates they will be at the park.

NEW! Introduction to Watercolor For Adults

When: Wednesday evenings in February: 3, 10, 17, 24

Time: 5-6pm

Cost: $60 total for all 4 sessions

You've asked and we listened; we are excited to offer a virtual art class for adults. In this four-part course, artists will learn to master a variety of fun and colorful watercolor painting techniques; you will learn everything from classic blending methods, to fun and surprising methods to produce incredible textural effects.

Space is limited and interest is high. Sign up today before the spots fill!

Youth Art Classes

We are continuing to offer virtual art classes for children ages 5-12. We have a variety of art styles and course options available. These classes are perfect for kids who need a creative outlet and parents who want a little break to get stuff done at home. Visit our Outschool page to view the complete list of course offerings and descriptions.

Exhibition of work by Anthony Caponi

This year is Anthony Caponi's centennial birthday. In celebration of his life and dedication to art and art education an exhibit of rarely seen artworks and items from his archives will be on display at Art Works Eagan. Watch our website and social media for updates. We will release additional information as we learn more about how current Covid-19 restrictions and regulations will affect the event.
