We hope you had a wonderful winter break! Our staff, board members and volunteers are gearing up for a monumental year as we celebrate the 30th anniversary of Caponi Art Park! In 1992, the park was incorporated as a nonprofit organization and has been providing affordable access to the arts ever since. Watch for upcoming announcements on this year's activities.

Be a part of the celebration: Share your stories

Help us celebrate our 30th anniversary by sharing your personal memories or experiences at the park and the influence of our founder, Anthony Caponi. We are looking for short stories, poems, or videos to share on a special anniversary section of our website.

Submission deadline is April 15, 2022. As a thank you, the first 15 people to submit a story will be offered the chance to participate in a special art workshop at the park this summer free of charge. Click here to learn more.
A unique summer experience for your kids

Registration opens Jan 15, 2022

Are you looking for a unique summer experience for your kids? Would they like to step into a world of swords and sorcery, catapults and castles, mythical heroes, and legendary beasts!

If so, we are happy to announce your kids will be able to do just that when our friends at Adventures in Cardboard return to Caponi Art Park for five weeks this summer.

Space is limited and their camps fill quickly! Visit the Adventures in Cardboard website for more information.

Volunteer with us

What better time to think about summer than during a Minnesota winter? Caponi Art Park will be looking for dedicated volunteers as soon as the snow melts and flowers bloom, so plan ahead to spend time helping at a one-of-a-kind community space, surrounded by art, nature, and friends.

Check out our website for information about volunteer opportunities at the park, or reach out to volunteer@caponiartpark.org with questions.
