Support Caponi Art Park on Give to the Max Day!

Nestled in the woods of Eagan, Caponi Art Park is a place where creativity, nature, and community come together. Each year, thousands of visitors of all ages and backgrounds learn, create, and explore through performances, guided tours, and hands-on programs.

Thanks to community support, like yours, the park continues to nurture connection and inspiration—making art and nature accessible to everyone.

Your generosity helps Caponi Art Park reach thousands each year:

- 12,000+ annual visitors from Eagan and across the Twin Cities metro area
- 3,500+ people attend dozens of free and low-cost programs accessible to all
- 3,375 youth and adults participate in guided tours, workshops, and hands-on programs
- 40% of visitors are children and 25% are seniors, reflecting our intergenerational reach
- 15 community partnerships with schools, nonprofits, and local organizations

DONATE NOW!

Your support makes a real difference.

While the park is most alive in the summer, our work continues year-round. We're planning 2026 performances and programs, running Community Education and Caponi on the Road activities, and nurturing the partnerships that make art, nature, and creativity accessible to everyone.

As a nonprofit, we rely on community generosity to keep our programs thriving.

Become a Friend of the Park with a $100 donation and help create lasting memories that connect people of all ages and abilities to art and nature. Give now to help Caponi Art Park continue inspiring creativity, connection, and discovery, right here in our community.

With gratitude,

CheyL
