

Translation Volunteer

Help Caponi Art Park reach more diverse communities by providing translation assistance.

Spanish: “Ayuda a Caponi Art Park a conectar con comunidades diversas como persona voluntaria de traducción.”

Somali: “Noo soo biir adigoo ah tarjumaan tabaruc ah si aad Caponi Art Park uga caawiso inay xiriir la yeelato bulshooyin kala duwan.”

Why Is It Important?

We want to create a space where all communities can engage with our events, the materials that we produce, and feel included.

Having translation assistance will help us reach more people in a meaningful way. It will provide park visitors with the context of what is happening at the park and what our events entail, to ensure we can be more accessible to our community.

What You Will Do

- Practice your translation skills
- Build your translation portfolio
- Translate materials from English to your language of expertise
- Translate signage for events, flyers, and handouts
- Translate art materials such as art packs

This work can be completed remote or in-person at Caponi Art Park on a very flexible schedule that works for you! This role can also be applied to by those with sign language knowledge.

No previous experience necessary!

Who Are You?

This role is for anyone with a passion for art and proficient in two or more languages, with the skill level to translate written text in English into your language of expertise. You need to have access to a computer and internet. The ideal volunteer would be able to spare 1–2 hrs a week.

We are looking for proficiency in:

- Spanish
- Somali
- Chinese
- Sign Language

- We are also open to help with other languages

How to Get Involved

Visit our website and fill out the volunteer sign-up form. In the “comments or questions” text box, specify that you would like to participate as a translation volunteer.

For further details, contact us by email or phone 651-454-9412.

We would love to work with you!